Petition of District Attorney Donahue Is Upheld by the Board

Designating an inquest held over the remains of a suicide in Irvington recently as a "travesty on the law," and declaring that John Bauman, a saloon-keeper of that place had sold the unfortunate liquor on the morning of his death, Mrs. Emily M. Mowry appeared before the board of supervisors today to protest against the renewal of Bauman's license. The matter will be determined next week.

Roadhouses of a vicious character will no longer be tolerated in Alameda county, according to the stand taken by the board.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Would the majority which Wilson was expected to bring down to the Tehachapi be sufficient to overcome the strength of Roosevelt and Johnson? TWO BOYS MAY HAVE BEEN DROWNED

Alameda Youths Are Believed to Have Lost Their Lives

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—It is believed that two Alameda youths yesterday were drowned off Bay Farm Island yesterday by the capsizing of their canvas canoe. The two are Wallace Rosenberg, 19 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Rosenberg, 1508 Alameda avenue, and George Baker, who came to Alameda recently from San Jose and who is employed by the Royal Type-Writer Company in San Francisco. Baker is 22 years of age.

Burning Steamer Sinks; Crew Narrowly Escape

When almost completely destroyed by fire alongside the wharf at the end of Oakland mole the Southern Pacific Company's river steamer Herald sank at 3 o'clock this morning. The officers and crew had barely time in which to escape from the burning vessel before it went down the flames being extinguished with loud hissing by the waters of the bay. The destruction of the boat afforded a spectacle and much excitement for the railroad employees on the mole during the early morning hours. The vessel, a 100-ton tug, was on fire in this quarter when smoke and flames began pouring out from the engine room hatch. Fortunately the cracking of the SAN JOSE, Nov. 4.—Oakland's "Fighting Legion" swept up through the Santa Clara valley today and entered the Garden City at noon with banners in front and the colors at all points for the defeat of the consolidation amendment. Under the deluge of written arguments, verbal oratory, thousands of buttons and badges and the irresistible impress of the Oakland spirit, San Jose early surrendered and gave the keys of the city to the visitors.

United Cigar Company to Erect 13-Story Building

A long-term lease of the Dunn estate property at the northwest corner of Fifteenth street and San Pablo avenue has been closed as foreclosed in THE TRIBUNE last week, by which the United Cigar company, a wealthy New York corporation, obtains for fifty years the ground area. A thirteen-story store and office structure will be erected by the cigar company at a cost of $150,000. The total rental for the half century is $300,000. This is declared by real estate men to be 20 per cent higher than any ground rental ever paid in Oakland. The lease will use the corner of its new building as a store. Walter Reed has prepared a design for a steel frame building to be erected on the property, construction of which is to begin January 1. The structure will be located on the corner of Fifteenth street and the extension of Washington from Fifteenth street to San Pablo avenue. The wooden building now occupying the lot is to be torn down in thirty days by the city, which has purchased it. The magnificent office building, which will be the highest structure in the city with the exception of the city hall, will be located on the corner of San Pablo and Washington streets. The new building will be a copy of the lot is to be torn down in thirty days by the city, which has purchased it. TRIBUNE ELECTION RETURNS

THE TRIBUNE is prepared to excel all its past successes in flashing election returns next Tuesday evening. Through an "extraordinary order service" arranged by the Associated Press, THE TRIBUNE will receive the election reports of the nation over leased wires. THE TRIBUNE'S staff of trained experts will work all night on the Alameda county returns and will constitute the nucleus of the election bureau for the county. As fast as the news is received it will be transmitted to THE TRIBUNE election screen on Eleventh street, near Broadway. The thousands of people who gather on Eleventh street tomorrow night will not only get the returns first and most accurately, but they will be treated to a pleasant surprise—an innovation in election returns. Be there Tuesday night and see for yourself what the surprise is; it will well repay you. And remember that you will get the returns just as fast as they are received exclusively by THE TRIBUNE from the Associated Press and compiled by THE TRIBUNE'S staff of experts. As soon as the polls close at 6 o'clock next Tuesday evening THE TRIBUNE messengers will appear at every polling place prepared to race to THE TRIBUNE election bureau with the first returns and later with the completed account. THE TRIBUNE has secured from Mr. Irving Jonas of the Hub permission to use the spacious roof of his building on the night of the election and the screen will therefore be visible to anyone on Eleventh street, between Broadway and Washington. Remember that THE TRIBUNE is the ONLY paper to get the Associated Press service which alone can be depended upon in a case like this. THE TRIBUNE is the only paper to get its local news direct from the polling places by its own messengers. Look at THE TRIBUNE'S election board Tuesday night as soon as it grows dark and you will be satisfied with the service and delighted with the surprise this paper has arranged for its patrons. Election returns furnished by THE TRIBUNE will be read from the stages of the local theaters. Watch THE TRIBUNE building in Eighth street for lights announcing election results. Election of Taft—Green lights and rockets. Election of Roosevelt—Blue lights and rockets. Election of Wilson—Red lights and rockets.

BALKANS SEA OF BLOOD

Ottoman Empire's Plea for Aid of Powers Must Go Unheeded, Say Officials

War Will Go On Until Sultan Is Brought to His Knees by Allies

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Turkish Ambassador here has been directed by the Ottoman government to inform Great Britain of Turkey's willingness to suspend hostilities with a view of arriving at a peace settlement. Tefik Pasha, immediately on receipt of the communication from Constantinople, went to the foreign office and conferred with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, for two hours.

The Balkan nations and Greece are persistent in their determination that Turkey must arrange directly with them the terms of peace without the intervention of the European powers. This attitude is emphasized in a statement from official sources which says: "The Turkish proposal of peace is satisfactory insofar as it shows a desire to prevent further bloodshed."

WILL NOT LISTEN. As regards foreign intervention, however, there seems no chance of the Balkan states listening to any foreign counsels while treating for the arrangement of conditions of peace. These must be settled between the Balkan states and Turkey direct.

"At this stage it may be declared that the whole campaign was pre-arranged and has so far been carried out entirely in accordance with the program. For a considerable time an officer of the Greek military staff, Colonel Dousmanis, was engaged at Sofia preparing the military details, while the political program was largely, if not entirely, the work of Premier Venizelos of Greece."

Those powers thus far consulted have responded to Turkey's appeal for mediation by declaring they could make only proposals for peace and could not approach the Balkan nations with a request for an armistice. The war, therefore, must continue and the Turkish armies, which the ports have at last admitted have been beaten, must keep on with their unequal struggle against the victorious invaders.

The terms of peace themselves are a matter entirely for the belligerents to settle. Bulgaria having again affirmed that no interference from the outside will be tolerated. In this she has the support of her allies who settled the present as well as the military aspect of the campaign before the war was undertaken.

Negotiations which were taking place among the powers when Turkey sprang the surprise of asking for mediation were not over-successful. The suggestion made by France, to

An Appeal to Civic Pride and Self Interest

THE PEOPLE of Alameda county are facing a crisis in their civic history. It must be met with unanimity, courage and resolution if this county is to be saved from dismemberment and the municipal identity of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda preserved.

The annexation amendment is not merely an assault on our municipal liberties—it is an attack on property values and commercial enterprise on this side of the bay. It is designed to strangle the development of Oakland harbor, and to reduce Oakland and her sister cities to a condition of political and mercantile peonage to San Francisco. The condition of Brooklyn today is an illustration of what would be the fate of Oakland in case San Francisco should extend her dominion over the east bay shore.

At the time of consolidation with New York, Brooklyn was the fourth city on the continent; today she is merely an outlying suburb of New York—a district of tenements and factories. Her pavements and parks are neglected and her waterfront unimproved. Although she has increased in population, her business district has declined in importance. She has lost her identity and her municipal standing.

She is governed from Tammany Hall in Manhattan and governed for the benefit of Manhattan and the spoilsmen of Tammany, who spend the taxes levied on Brooklyn property and give as little attention to the civic wants of Brooklyn as possible.

Brooklyn's police and fire departments are controlled in Manhattan. What that control means is shown by the Becker case. Police partnership with vice and crime, graft and blackmail and assassination by professional braves are some of the fruits Brooklyn has reaped by surrendering the control of her domestic affairs to Tammanytown. There are no compensations.

The tax rate in Brooklyn has enormously increased and her people loaded down with a bonded indebtedness that eats up one-fourth of the revenues of the consolidated city. Franchises are granted without the permission of her citizens, who must take their complaints to the politicians of Manhattan if they want abuses corrected.

Brooklyn no longer exists as a commercial entity. Her bank clearings and trade returns are all credited to New York, of which she is not really a part, but a mere dependency. She has lost the power to do for herself and help herself. She has been reduced to a condition of squalid impotence.

Do the people of Alameda county wish to reduce Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda to a similar abject condition? Do the people of the state at large wish to reduce the inhabitants of the east bay shore to such a condition of political and commercial servitude? If they do not they will vote against the annexation amendment.

Is anyone foolish enough to think the development of Oakland harbor will continue if San Francisco gains control of our affairs? If we asked for money—a part of our own money—to build docks and wharves on the Oakland waterfront, the answer would be: "You can't have it; docks and wharves are not needed on the eastern side of the bay; the place for ships to load and discharge is San Francisco; here are docks and wharves and we will not consent to spend money to build port facilities that will take business away from the city of San Francisco."

That is the answer we on this side of the bay would get, and the only answer. If we should consent to be annexed, San Francisco would still be THE city in the estimation of San Franciscans and Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda regarded as residential suburbs, and treated as such. The effort would be, so far as political connivance is able to influence the result, to center all business activities in the present city of San Francisco, to the detriment of the communities on this side of the bay. We should be hamstrung and governed for the enrichment and aggrandizement of San Francisco.

Lower taxes and better service was the promise held out to Brooklyn in 1898. Higher taxes and poorer service is what she received. That is just what Oakland will receive. At present the taxes raised on this side of the bay are spent here and all civic activities are directed by a desire to upbuild and benefit this community. If we attach ourselves to San Francisco, the taxes raised here will be expended to upbuild and benefit San Francisco; our local interests will be neglected and our municipal aspirations stifled and suppressed. And we would have nothing to say about it.

San Francisco does not want a commercial and marine shipping center developed on the east side of the bay. She will not allow one to be developed if she has the power. Oakland is on the continental side of the bay; she is already a great railroad center. Four transcontinental lines terminate here. Ship and car meet on every foot of Oakland's fifteen miles of waterfront, and we have the advantage of municipal ownership. All the potentialities exist here for a great city.

Shall we throw away our opportunity along with the power to control our domestic affairs, and take the position of a residential and factory suburb, without identity and without hope of municipal greatness? No; a thousand times, no. Vote against the amendment that is designed to reduce the Alameda cities to political and commercial slavery.

Vote for the Greater Oakland, not the greater San Francisco. Vote to save our waterfront from hostile foreign control. Vote to hold our destiny within our own keeping. Vote against dismembering Alameda county, and against Tammanizing the State of California. Resist aggression by voting against Amendment No. 6.

Civic pride calls to you. Municipal patriotism appeals to you. Self interest adjures you. Experience warns you. Do your duty—don't forget it.

The Two Men for Superior Judges.

Every voter should bear in mind, when he goes to the polls, that two Superior Judges are to be elected in Alameda county. Each elector will therefore indicate his choice of the two men he desires to fill the office of Superior Judge.

There should be no hesitation in making this choice. William H. Donahue and F. B. Ogden are so well qualified by training, talents and temperament that every citizen can vote for them without misgiving or looking further on the ballot. They are men of character and tried probity. Both have proved their fearlessness and honesty. In voting for them the citizen will be voting for a clean, upright, and able judiciary.

Under the new law candidates for judge appear on the ballot without political designation. They are nominated independently of party by the voice of the whole people. They are elected for their superior qualifications and not for what they stand for in politics.

Gauged by the standard of fitness and character Mr. Donahue and Judge Ogden are so eminently qualified that the elector who fails to vote for them will not be doing his duty to society in its organized state. Mr. Donahue is our present efficient and courageous District Attorney. Judge Ogden has occupied a seat on the Superior Bench for many years.

Remember there are two judges to elect, and that WILLIAM H. DONAHUE and JUDGE OGDEN are the men to elect.

A good deal is being said about the duty of society to the convict, but in all the discussion nothing is said about the duty the convict owes to society. Some people seem to think the convict is a person to be pitied, coddled and indulged and treated as a deserving unfortunate rather than a criminal who has wronged and preyed upon society. People who will not bestow a word of sympathy upon the unfortunate poor who are innocent of crime are vociferous in clamoring about the alleged "wrongs" of abandoned wretches who have violated the laws of God and man. No honest man has reason to complain of the coarse fare and degrading garb of the penitentiary. It is a place he keeps out of. It is not wise to lose sight of the fact that the penalties of confinement in prison are brought on men by themselves. They have invoked those penalties with their eyes open, knowing the consequences of breaking the law. Such men have small claim on society. Society owes nothing to its enemies.

The Chronicle still persists in saying that the people of Oakland and Berkeley want to consolidate with San Francisco. It knows the statement is untrue, nevertheless it continues to print it. Yet it has the hardihood to accuse others of lying.

Why the Betting Men Favor Wilson.

An analysis of the situation explains very clearly why the gamblers of New York are offering heavy odds on the election of Woodrow Wilson. In the first place, Wilson has a big block of electoral votes to start with, and in the second, Roosevelt's candidacy has split the Republican party, leaving the Democratic lines intact and the Democratic organization unimpaired. Republican division has given heart and courage to the Bourbons, and Republican disorganization has tended to strengthen the Democratic organization.

This of itself is enough to inspire confidence in Democratic success, and when we look further we find still more solid reasons for the feeling of Democratic elation. Including Arizona, Oklahoma and the Solid South will give Wilson 186 electoral votes. It only requires 266 to elect. It is conceded that New Jersey will give him fourteen more, bringing his total up to 200. Should he carry New York and Indiana, which have together sixty votes, he will need only six more votes to elect him. Either Connecticut, Nebraska or Maine will supply the deficiency. Nevada and Montana, or Colorado and New Mexico, or New Hampshire and Delaware will turn the trick.

But under present conditions—and it is too late for them to be altered—Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Illinois and California are debatable States. Interneine Republican conflict has put every State formerly safely Republican in the doubtful list. No State is certain for either Taft or Roosevelt if the Republican party splits in half and the Democrats hold together. Even the tremendous Republican majority in Pennsylvania is not big enough to defeat the Democratic minority if it divides into two nearly equal fractions.

The disastrous effect of division was illustrated by the vote cast in the Vermont State election. Normally the Republican majority in that State is far in excess of the total Democratic vote. This year the Republican plurality was only 6000. Had the Republican vote been equally divided between the Republican and Progressive candidates, the Democrats would have carried the State—for the first time since 1812.

It is not Democratic strength that threatens the Republican party, but Republican division. By dividing the Republican party, Colonel Roosevelt and his followers have made probable the election of a Democratic President. If such was their aim they could not have gone about the task in a better way to accomplish it.

Don't forget to vote for Joe Knowland, the man always on the job. We need him in Congress.

The Turk Seems Doomed.

Both sides claim to have won a victory in the recent fighting around Adrianople, but one fact stands out clear amid the conflicting reports: The Bulgarians have not relaxed their stranglehold on Adrianople. Their advance may have been checked, but they have not been pushed back and Adrianople has not been relieved. Meantime, the Servians and Montenegrins are pushing south toward Salonica, on which the Greek army is advancing in the same direction from the southwest, driving the Turkish army before it. If this converging advance is not checked, the investment and capture of Salonica, which is the second city in European Turkey, is certain, in which case Constantinople will be cut off from all communication with Macedonia and Albania by a junction of the Greek and Servian armies. This culmination would leave the southern approach to the Turkish capital open for the Greeks and Servians, while the Bulgarians are hammering at the northern portal. Every invading army meets with checks and repulses, but when the invaders steadily gain and the defenders lose ground, it requires no great penetration to perceive who is winning. Apparently the Turk is being whipped to a finish in the last ditch. He may turn the tables yet, but the probabilities are all the other way.

While it's morally certain that San Francisco's initiative grabbing amendment to Section 7 of Article XI of the State Constitution will be defeated at the polls on Tuesday for the reason that it is unfair in its provisions to other bay cities and has selfish designs on them and on those sections of the State tributary to San Francisco bay, it is nevertheless the duty of every fair-minded and honestly-disposed citizen to be sure that he votes "NO" to the proposition, which is sixth on the ballot, before he deposits the latter and make the majority so decisively large that there can be no question raised as to the temper of the people of the State.

To the people of the east bay shore cities and, in fact, the State at large, it is of much greater importance to their future welfare that the initiative constitutional amendment to Section 7 of Article XI shall be defeated next Tuesday than it is who shall be the next President of the United States. For that reason, no voter should fail to mark "NO" against the amendment's adoption.

The saddest experience we will have to undergo for the next few days is meeting the man who says "I told you so."

There are two Superior Judges to elect. Vote for Donahue and Ogden.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Bicycle riding is quite the fad in Golden Gate. Parties are frequently made up for a ramble on the silent steeds. Yesterday a party consisting of Miss Lydia Brown, Miss Jennie Dickmann, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Welsh spent the day in riding through Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

Arrangements are about completed for one of the most unique political gatherings ever held in this State. The Alliance boys have a general committee of fifty-one members are hard at work and the auditorium will be handsomely decorated. Hon. S. G. Hibborn will preside and General W. H. L. Barnes has signified his desire to attend.

The Colonels found it an easy matter to take the game from the San Franciscans yesterday at the Haight street park. German did the pitching and the score was 6 to 5 in favor of Oakland.

Fred Brunjes and Phil Reader, the newly appointed members of the fire department, were banqueted last evening at the Baltimore restaurant by Henry Meyer. The members of Engine Company No. 1 and their friends were at the party.

A boy ran his head against Walter Smith's thigh at the high school yesterday. The lad's head is very hard and Smith will be laid up for a week. Stephen M. White of Los Angeles addressed a Democratic meeting at his Tabernacle last evening. The meeting was largely attended. T. C. Coogan acted as chairman of the meeting. The Athens Drill Corps acted as escort to Mr. White. The Republicans are expected to illuminate their residences and places of business and explode fireworks. In a word, the campaign will conclude in a blaze of glory.

WITTY BITS

A number of Denver officials have been in the city, stating that they were on their way to keep up their petty rivalry with New York.
The princess who remarked that American women are too thin, due to hurrying, at least had grace enough not to add, "after the men."
The authorities of New York have bought a farm, where tramps will be reeducated. That's the stuff! We must keep our tramps up to the standard, at any cost.

The Next to the Last Proposition on the Ballot

The racetrack amendment should be defeated. No one who knows of the toll of human suffering, of the families broken up and scattered through the influence of the tracks can view with complacency the attempt to nullify the present effective law and once more legalize racetrack gambling. Any form of gambling at the racetracks will bring a return of the lamentable conditions which confronted us when the tracks were operating. The Legislature which passed the bill that eliminated the evils of racetrack gambling put California on the list of States that have wisely legislated in this regard. It is now charged that signatures on the initiative petition were obtained by fraud as well as by misrepresentation, and the people will surely vote "NO" on a law proposed under such auspices.

BY MISS KATHERINE FELTON,
Secretary of the Associated Charities and Chairman of the Legislative Committee of the San Francisco Center.

TO DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO THE ELECTORS

Here It Is as It Appears on the Ballot—

THE measure, on its face, apparently prohibits bookmaking, pool-selling, and all other forms of racetrack gambling. As a matter of fact it legalizes racetrack gambling. Should it become a law, the crime-factories at Emeryville and Ascot would resume operations.

INITIATIVE MEASURE TO BE SUBMITTED DIRECTLY TO ELECTORS
An act to prohibit bookmaking and pool-selling, and to provide for the appointment of a state racing commission to grant licenses for horse racing in the State of California, for a limited period, and the permitting of wagering upon such races by the Paris Mutual and Auction Pool Systems only, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act.

PRESENT LAW EFFECTIVE.

SINCE the present law prohibiting racetrack gambling has been in operation, crime has been materially reduced in the State. This is shown by the police records of San Francisco and Oakland. Surely companies have lowered their premiums on bonds to trusted employees and financial institutions report that embezzlements are now not nearly so frequent. These facts can be easily established by the records.

WOMAN SLAYER DECLARED SANE

Hereditary Taint May Have Influenced Mrs. Lesh, Say M. D's.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Pansy Hastings Lesh, who is in jail here awaiting removal to Sedalia, Mo., where she probably will be tried for the murder by poisoning of Mrs. Eliza Coe of that city and Mrs. M. A. Quaintance of Greenridge, Mo., a half-dozen years ago, was declared sane today by Dr. James T. Fisher, a prominent alienist.

Threats of exposure made by Warren C. Lesh, the young woman's husband, because of her friendship for another man, are believed by the police to have influenced Mrs. Lesh to surrender herself and confess her crimes. In addition to her avowed desire to "start life over again with a clean slate."

"My husband and I could never agree," she said, "and when I found a place as housekeeper at the home of William Junker, who is foundry foreman for a machinery company, he got jealous. Junker was kind to me, kinder than any man ever was. I think he would have married me if I had a divorce.

"Perhaps he would not now," she added naively, "now that he knows what I did. But I told him that there was something wrong in my life and without knowing what it was he advised me to straighten it out, even if it caused me trouble."

After a thorough examination Dr. Fisher declared that while he believed the young woman to be entirely sane, it was very probable that she was a victim of hereditary influences. An inherited taint may have caused the girl to poison two women who had done her no serious wrong, according to the alienist, just as another latent trait in her peculiar mentality may have responded to the kindness she met at the hands of the man at whose suggestion she appears to have made her confession.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Otto Preske, who lives at the Commodore Hotel, 120 Embarcadero, took a stranger to his room last night in a spirit of kindness. This morning when he awoke he found that the man had opened his purse and taken a $20 gold piece.

CARDINAL FARLEY RESTS AFTER TRIP

Churchman to Be Guest of Panama-Pacific Directors, Tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Complete rest for two days was the program arranged for His Eminence Cardinal Farley upon his arrival in San Francisco Saturday evening, and worshippers at St. Mary's Cathedral experienced a disappointment at the Sunday morning service when he did not appear.

His eminence will not appear in public again until tomorrow, when he and his party of distinguished ecclesiastics are to become the guests of the board of directors of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

A long journey across the continent has been made by Cardinal Farley, and it is the desire of those who watch over his affairs to allow him thorough recuperation from the wear and tear of travel by train before he gives himself up to the outpouring of esteem and affectionate admiration that awaits him in California.

GARDEN OF GIRLS AT THE PANTAGES

"American Beauties" Feature of New Vaudeville Bill.

A musical garden of girls is the headline attraction at the Pantages this week. The garden is filled with American Beauties—six of them are sufficient to make a pretty garden, and between playing stringed instruments and singing they furnish as much melody as if they were a round dozen. If there is any one who does not love the music of the harp, that person has not admitted it. Every hand at the Pantages yesterday applauded not only the harp but the cello and the four violins which make up Minnie Palmer's stringed band. The program is of wide range, which means that cyncopated melody is not overlooked in the final minutes of the act. A feature number is the violin accompaniment played in one of the upper boxes by the youngest of the sextet, assisting a maiden who illustrates her song with an array of roses. Both the solo and choral singing of members of the sextet, as well as the instrumental work, is pleasing.

FUN FOR YOUNGSTERS.
This is going to be a great week for the kiddies at the Pantages. Schepp's comedy circus is at the Twelfth street house, with almost human ponies, dogs and monkeys. The monkeys are so anxious to start their act, to say nothing of their anxiety to please, that one of their number was delegated yesterday afternoon to share the stage with Cal Stewart before the veteran entertainer's monologue was finished. Cal declined to take the hint that his space was wanted by the monkeys, and he showed the intruder into the wings. The animals in the circus keep things moving while they are on the stage and keep the older ones of the audience from leaving before the show is over.

Al Egan hit himself in the back of the neck dozens of times with cannon balls and projectiles which he tossed into the air, furnishing no end of thrills, while Laura Roth furnishes the fun. No one will dispute the press agent's opinion that the act is ninety per cent comedy, meaning ninety per cent Roth.

FAMILIAR THEME.
Another circumstantial evidence sketch comes under the title "The Connector," headed by Charles King. "When the attorney refuses to defend 'Meg Hogan's' lover, accused of murder, because he does not believe her self-defense story, Meg finds a way of convincing him that his circumstantial evidence theory is a far more fitmy one. Virginia Thorne's story is the feature of the comedy playlet.

Julie Cooper and Dell Moore are billed as the entertaining duo. They entertain with songs, one of which describes an automobile ride. Powell and Rose, a team half white and half black, do out minstrelsy. Cal Stewart, "the man who made photographs famous," is engaged this week in making himself famous in Oakland with his story of a down-caster's visit to "New York." He also has a medley of old-time songs.

LUTHERAN CHURCH HONORS FOUNDER

Reformation Day Observed by Oakland Congregations.

Yesterday was generally observed by the Lutheran churches of Oakland as Reformation Day and special tribute was paid to the life and works of Martin Luther, the reformer.

At Zion's German Lutheran Church Rev. J. H. Theils, the pastor, told of the achievements of the reformer and indicated the influence of his teachings from his high to the present.

Other churches observing the day were the Trinity German Evangelical at Seventeenth avenue and East Fifteenth street, Rev. E. Hasrodt, the pastor, occupying the pulpit; First English Evangelical Lutheran, of which Rev. Harvey M. Leach is pastor; St. Mark's German Evangelical, of which Rev. William Schmidt is pastor; Trinity Norwegian, Rev. E. B. Delum, pastor; and St. Peter's German Evangelical church, of which Rev. F. Schlotmann is the pastor.

Next Wednesday evening the congregation of St. Paul's Swedish Evangelical church will hold the reformation exercises, and on next Sunday Our Savior's Danish Norwegian church, of which Rev. M. N. Anderson is pastor, has provided for similar services.

TOLD IN OAKLAND

A Resident Known to All Our Readers Relates an Experience.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE have been told again and again of the merits of that reliable, time-proved kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. The experienced told are those of unknown persons, living far away. The cases are Oakland cases, told by Oakland people.

J. Lee, shoemaker, 2334 Twenty-fifth avenue, Oakland, Cal., says: "Twelve years ago I began to have trouble with my back and kidneys. At night I was annoyed by a pain across the small of my back. I also had this trouble during the day. I had pain in my hips and legs. The close confinement and sitting for hours at the bench in a stooped position, I believe caused my kidneys to become weak and I had trouble from the frequent passing of the kidney secretions. At last I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and from the time I began using them, I noticed improvement. I continued taking them and was benefited in every way." (Signed: J. Lee, shoemaker, 2334 Twenty-fifth avenue, Oakland, Cal., Nov. 3, 1912.)

When Mr. Lee was interviewed on October 15, 1912, he said: "I get no more trouble from my kidneys now, and when I do get Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon get me right. During the past three years I have used two boxes and they have kept my back and kidneys in good condition. I am glad to confirm my former statement."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Doan's Kidney Pills, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States and Canada. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HEIR TO THRONE HURT IN LEAP INTO BOAT

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—The first official statement as to the cause of the illness of the Czarowitz was given out last night. It says that while the heir to the Russian throne was at Bilevich in September he attempted to spring into a boat. The distance was too far and he fell, but nothing wrong was noticed until September 20, when a painful swelling of the groin and bleeding of the abdomen developed.

Three weeks' treatment so reduced the bleeding that the boy was able to try to stand; but on October 11, while he was walking unaided, he fell and started the bleeding again on October 15. This caused the whole left groin to swell to a point beyond the center of the abdomen. The bleeding naturally caused great anemia, which will require prolonged recuperation and will possibly interfere with the free use of the patient's legs for a long time.

WOMAN CAUSE OF BATTLE IN SALOON

The police are holding Willis Lightner, a negro, pending the outcome of the injuries inflicted by him on the person of H. H. Thompson, a negro chef employed by the Western Pacific railroad, in a saloon fight concerning a woman Saturday night. Lightner is said to have drawn a pocket knife, with which he stabbed Thompson three times.

Thompson was removed to the Receiving Hospital, and was afterwards removed to the Merritt Hospital by Dr. Channing Hall. It is not thought that the wounds will result fatally.

Mexico Resident Finds
Girl After Search of Many Years.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—A ragged piece of newspaper two months old has given Charles W. Clarke of Chihuahua, Mexico, his first clew after seven years' search for his daughter, Isabel, who was abducted, supposedly by Gypsies, when she was 5 years of age. The piece carried the appeal of a little Kansas City girl, who signed herself Edna Meyers, to the Los Angeles police to help to find her father.

The child said that she had been taken away from her home when very small, that her right name was Clark, and that her father's name, as she remembered it, was Thomas. Despite this difference the circumstances of the supposed abduction tally so closely that Clarke is convinced she is his daughter. He passed through this city yesterday to Kansas City to find her.

Clarke says his child was taken from its caretaker by several men while he was in July, 1905. He has practically exhausted his resources in a search which he has prosecuted ever since, and had given up hope when he happened to come across the newspaper story of the little Missouri girl.

Goes on Stage

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Miss Gray Stowe arrived in New York yesterday after a hurried trip from her home in San Francisco. When she left the Golden Gate she was supposed to visit her father in Seattle, but a longing for Broadway and an opportunity to invade the theatrical field changed her plans.

She telegraphed her father she was going to Seattle via New York and if he did not approve of her transcontinental trip she would return from Denver if he did not there. When she reached Denver there was no message, but at Lincoln, Neb., a message was received which gave her permission to make the trip to New York with the proviso that she start west immediately after election day.

On her arrival here she called on Lew Fields, seeking an engagement with the new music hall stock company which is now in rehearsal. Fields told her that there were no vacancies at present. As she walked through the corridor she met Joe Weber.

"I beg your pardon," she said to Weber. "Are you going into Mr. Fields' office?" The comedian looked puzzled and nodded in the affirmative.

"Well, you please tell him that I have traveled 3000 miles to hear him say 'no.' All the way from San Francisco," she said.

Weber told her that she had better return and tell her father about her trip from San Francisco and probably an engagement could be arranged. It was and Miss Stowe will report for rehearsal tomorrow morning.

To Hear News

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Taft has planned to come to New York today, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Helen Taft. They will stay at the Manhattan hotel over Tuesday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hill.

At the hotel Mrs. Taft will be enabled to receive the election returns. She will probably leave for Washington to rejoin the president on his arrival at the White House.

Before the president left for Cincinnati last night he received a telegram from his aunt, Della Torrey, saying that she and her friends were praying for his success.

On the way to the station the president learned of the accident to Governor Wilson and expressed his sorrow. He said he was pleased to hear that the Democratic candidate's injuries were slight.

EXETER, N. H., Nov. 4.—Richard Folson Cleveland, a second-year student at Phillips Exeter Academy and son of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, heartily approves of his mother's engagement to Professor Thomas Joseph Preston.

"He appears to be a bully fine chap," says Dick Cleveland of his stepfather-to-be. "I have met him only once, though. It was last summer at our summer home in the White mountains. What I saw then of Professor Preston made me like him."

"I am not willing to say how long I have known him, but I have known him as long as anybody has. My mother visited me a few days ago."

NO MORE SLIM WAISTS

By LILLIAN RUSSELL
Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.

THE waist is strictly the smallest part of the human trunk. The zone of waist of the healthy and symmetrically-formed woman, not exceeding middle stature, when this part has not been injudiciously interfered with, is bound to measure twenty-seven to twenty-nine inches in circumference. In no case, with women of beautiful and graceful figures and perfect health, does it ever fall below twenty-seven inches. Any decrease in the measurement below this point is indicative either of imperfect natural development of this important portion of the body, or of its growth having been artificially arrested during youth and early maturity by compression. The old-fashioned idea that a twenty-two or twenty-four-inch waist was a mark of beauty is now a history of the past.

The small waist is not the waist of nature, nor of beauty. It is an absolute deformity, and in the nude figure would be, from an artistic point of view, actually intolerable. It is only the extraneous assistance of dress that disfigures it and enables it to pass muster in the tout ensemble. Sculptors and artists in their female have copied the most beautiful models furnished by their species, and their works excite the admiration of the world. We gaze upon them with rapture and we feel that there the human form most nearly approaches the divine. Then why should our ideas and perceptions of natural beauty in woman pertain only to paintings and sculpture and desert us immediately when we turn from the fine arts to real life? "Only observe, if the statue of the Medicean Venus were to be pressed in stays and her beautiful feet compressed into a pair of tight shoes, it would extort a smile from Heracles and a horse laugh from a syren."

Happily for future generations we see fewer small, wasp-like waists and compressed busts today than in past years. So much glory for the fashion-makers. Today the woman is considered imbecile who bandages herself to the point of discomfort. Every sensible woman must see how hurtful the use of tight stays, belts or other instruments of compression must be to the vital organs of the chest and abdomen. Hurtful alike to the health, comfort and beauty of the wearer. Why should the lower portion of the chest be pinched in and made the smallest part when nature intended it to be the largest?

The spine, ribs, bosom and shoulders need no aid from tight stays, and the contents of the abdomen instead of being supported and strengthened, as it is foolishly thought, by stays and belts, are absolutely forced out of place, somewhat downward out of their natural position so as to materially impede their natural functional action. Breathing is impaired and necessarily all sorts of disease are given an avenue. We hail the reasonably-sized waist with healthy acclaim. All women will be stronger and better in health and disposition. Remember, when compressing any portion of your body, you must include some portion of your brain.

MRS. G. R.—Keeping the hair and scalp in good condition will go a long way in preventing the hair from turning gray. Massage the scalp every night for about ten minutes. This will loosen the scalp and keep it flexible, so that the hair will get nourishment and become full of life. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you instructions for scalp massage and formula for an excellent hair tonic.

H. L. C.—I am sorry, but I am unable to give you any information about the treatment you mention.

E. L. W.—Tindine or witch hazel will help, but the main thing is to get the joint back into its normal position. To do this, first of all, you must wear a shoe large enough to keep the toes from being pinched together. Put a piece of absorbent cotton between the great and second toes, large enough to keep them apart, then take adhesive plaster bandage and bandage the ball of the foot firmly, holding the joint in place. By doing this the inflammation will soon leave it and it will become normal.

MISS M. M.—Blackheads cannot be forced back, but must be coaxed out of the pores. You can only do this by careful cleansing of the face daily. First use a good cold cream, cleansing the face with it, then wash the face in warm water, not hot, and plenty of good, pure soap. Use a camel's hair complexion brush for this removes more of the dirt from the pores than a wash cloth. Rinse the face thoroughly with cold water, then with cold. The cold water closes the pores and hardens the flesh. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you my green soap treatment for blackheads, formula for a good cold cream and a healing, soothing salve for pimples.

Answers to Queries

MARIA—No, I would not advise you to use an eyebrow pencil to darken your hair. I think if you would massage your scalp every night for about ten minutes it would prevent your hair from turning any grayer. The illness has probably turned a few of your hairs gray, and it may not turn any more for years. I would not advise you to dye your hair. I shall be glad to send you instructions for scalp massage and formula for hair tonic which I am sure will benefit you.

G. J. R.—Do not, whatever you do, bleach your hair. You will only make it worse than it is. It may turn a beautiful blonde and it may turn a dirty drab color, but it will never stay the same color, for it will turn darker from the roots. I would advise you to use a good shampoo on your hair about once a month. I have an excellent shampoo for blonde hair that I shall be glad to send you upon receipt of a stamped addressed envelope. This is not a bleach, but will make the hair bright and lustrous.

S. F. "TRADE" MISSIONARY RUSE IS FAILURE

ANNEXATION IS
TRIPS

San Diego Refuses to Help
Hire Hall in Interest of Amendment.

Secretary Denison Predicts
Victory for Those Fighting Scheme.

Reports from points in the state recently visited by the so-called "trade excursion" of members of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce show that the results were far from favorable to the plans of the annexationists. These excursions were announced as trips by San Francisco business men to the cities and towns of California for the purpose of meeting customers and talking over conditions that affect trade relations. The special trains made their trips, they visited towns and cities, saw the "trade" missionaries, and also heard them.

The San Francisco "trade excursionists" after getting a courteous welcome under the pretense that they wanted to talk about business affairs, devoted their time and voices to the attempt to influence voters for the consolidation amendment. The people visited were amazed at such tactics and when convinced that the San Franciscans were endeavoring to use their trip as a means of their hospitality under a false guise, they were indignant.

RECEIVE REBUFF.
The San Diego Union tells the story of how San Francisco's campaigners for annexation were rebuffed in their presumption that they had but to demand and they would receive. Here is the news item from the San Diego paper:

"San Francisco Chamber of Commerce received a decided setback in its fight for constitutional amendment No. 8 yesterday when the local Chamber of Commerce declined to co-operate with the annexationists to the extent of defraying half the expenses of hall rental in the campaign proposed to be conducted here."

"The letter from the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce asked that the local body share half the expense of engaging a hall for one or two meetings in the interests of the amendment to be held within a few days. Secretary Rufus Choate was instructed to procure prices upon the various halls rented for public meetings and forward them to San Francisco, but the Chamber of Commerce will maintain rigid silence upon the balance of the proposition, although inviting San Francisco to hold meetings here at their own volition if they desire."

SPECIAL INTERESTS BUSY.
A. A. Denison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, in a general survey of the situation indicates that if the citizens of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Richmond, Piedmont, Emeryville and other cities about the bay are true to their own interests, the amendment, on the ground that it is unfair to Oakland and the other east bay shore cities, and is special legislation, tending to create a political trust in two cities which would Tammanyize California.

"I base my opinion on a canvass of the state that has extended from Sacramento, Woodland and Santa Rosa on the north, to San Diego, Los Angeles and Santa Barbara on the south, extending through out the great valleys and up and down the coast. I have visited hundreds of newspaper offices, interviewed thousands of individuals, made fifty addresses, and personally distributed more than ten thousand copies of literature through thirty-seven counties, and nothing but lack of loyalty to ourselves, or some unforeseen influence exercised in the last hours of the campaign can cause us to lose this fight against this iniquitous consolidation amendment, which is number six on the ballot."

GETS HEAVY SENTENCE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—James Wing, who has been convicted of previous offenses and who was recently found guilty on two charges of burglary, was sentenced by Superior Judge Lawlor this morning to serve two terms of eight years and five years in San Quentin penitentiary. The sentences are to run concurrently. On July 8 Wing broke into the home of S. H. Perry, 455 Golden Gate avenue, and on September 7 ransacked the room of Adolph Hauer, Clay and Powell streets.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland in an interview today said:

"I expect to be returned to congress by a larger majority than I have received at any previous election. During the next two years California will be interested vitally in legislation upon the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the opening of the Panama canal, the readjustment of tariff schedules and many other questions of equal importance to this state will be before the national legislative body."

"I now rank as number two in point of continuous service in the house of representatives from California, holding one of the most important committee assignments, ranking as number three on the Republican side on the committee on interstate and foreign commerce."

"My fight has been made upon my record of accomplishments for the district and state. The next two years will be the most important in the history of California."

"The government must appropriate money for a new and enlarged project for this waterway that will meet the new conditions with the opening of the Panama canal. All these things are appreciated by the people of this district."

COUNTERFEITER ACCUSED OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE

Investigations by the federal authorities have brought to light that Frank Bouchard, who was given his preliminary hearing on a felony charge before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, worked in a store of counterfeit money in different occupations while operating, according to the special agents, as a clever counterfeiter and distributor of bad coins.

Bouchard was held to answer before Judge Smith this morning on a charge of failure to provide for his wife, Virginia Bouchard, and two minor children, bail being fixed in the sum of $2000.

Bouchard was arrested on the complaint of his wife in Modesto last week. The police found counterfeit coins on his person, and on going to his room, discovered a complete outfit for manufacturing dimes, quarters and half dollar pieces.

The discovery was reported to the federal authorities, and Special Agent Harry Moffitt has been working on the case for several days. Moffitt succeeded in tracing Bouchard through a score of cities. The man worked as cook, laborer, grape picker, woodchopper, lumber jack and occupied himself in a variety of other trades. It is believed that Bouchard had used these activities to cloak his counterfeiting work, and that he moved from city to city to evade the police.

Lloyd, Mrs. John F. Walker, W. Weeks and Mrs. M. J. Dyer.

BURGLAR OBTAINS
BATH AND LUNCH

Patent Leather Shoes, Silk
Socks and Coin Also Taken.

The Oakland police have been asked to search for a roughly dressed burglar, who wears silk socks and patent leather shoes, and who has the general air of having partaken of an excellent banquet within the past few hours, and having had a hot bath.

James McCarthy, 765 Fifty-third street, gave the police this description, while lamenting the disappearance of his socks, shoes, a plumper of cream, two plates, a small breakfast chest, butter, eggs and bread and a pint of milk.

McCarthy left his home unprotected for a little over an hour last night while visiting neighbors. When he returned, he found that a visitor had paid him a call during his absence and had made himself quit at home.

In the dining room McCarthy found the remains of a repast which his guest had enjoyed. Bread, butter, jam and cheese had been eaten, and the wine cellar had also been visited.

McCarthy then went to the bedroom, where he found a pair of very old and exceedingly dirty socks decorating his bed while an old and much run-down pair of shoes replaced his own patent leathers. A pair of silk socks had been taken.

"But the worst of all was when I stepped into the bath room," McCarthy told the police. "There was a tub full of dirty hot water and some wet towels. Evidently the burglar had not had a bath for some time previous to his visit to my home."

In his efforts not to overlook any chances, the burglar also took a purse containing $2.50.

SEES HOLD-UP MAN
WORKING NEAR HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Joseph Broto of 854 Bay street was warned that a hold-up man was lurking near his home early this morning, but failed to heed the admonition, and was given a bad scare. Broto was walking along Bay street near Van Ness avenue, when he met a man and a girl. They told him that there was a robber down the block, but he proceeded on his way.

"Stop where you are," ordered the thugs. Broto, realizing that he was about to be held up, turned and fled. As he reached the end of the street he looked back and saw that the robber was searching the pockets of another pedestrian, who had approached from the opposite direction.

KNOWLAND'S RECORD BEST
ARGUMENT FOR THE VOTERS

"For Congress in this district the fight is between Congressman Knowland, Mayor Stitt Wilson and Hiram A. Luttrell. The record of achievement that Knowland has made for this county entitles him to support. He has been loyal and faithful to Alameda county and his great vote at the primary shows how he is regarded by the people. A handsome postoffice for Berkeley is one of the things for which the voters here are thankful."—Berkeley Daily Gazette, Saturday, November 2, 1912.

TO ANCHOR BOATS IN FRESH WATER

Sea Substances Too Injurious
for Alaska Packers' Vessels.

An experiment will be made this year by the North Alaska Salmon Company to determine whether a fresh water anchorage is better suited for their packets than salt water. For this purpose all of the packets of the company will be anchored off Antioch this winter instead of in the local inner harbor, as has been the rule in past years. According to report, the substances which form on vessels anchored in salt water will not form in fresh water. Should this prove the case it will do away with the necessity of having an annual cleaning of the big salmon boats.

It is said that these sea substances lessen the usefulness of the wooden packets, gradually decaying the wooden bottom planking. The North Alaska Salmon people are also making arrangements to protect their fleet from possible fires. Several times during the past season, while anchored off East Oakland, minor blazes which threatened to destroy one of the several packets laid up here were discovered in the nick of time and extinguished by the Alaska Packers' fireboat.

In Antioch the vessels will not have this protection and to prevent any disaster falling on the fleet the company is having a launch fitted out with a complete fire fighting device, at the local yards of the Atlas Gas Engine Works. The new fire fighter will be ready for service in a few weeks.

ALLEGED HOLD-UP
MAN IN CUSTODY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Police-men Mitchell and Mathewson were standing at Mission street and Onondago avenue early this morning when they saw a man acting suspiciously and on searching him found a 41-caliber revolver. He proved to be J. F. Haecker of 42 Francis street. On searching him they found a quantity of cartridges, an assortment of clothing and a watch. The man decided to take him into custody on suspicion of a possible connection with several car and automobile hold-ups. He was placed in detention at the city prison and in the event that no more serious charge can be found he will be booked for carrying concealed weapons.

Y.M.C.A. BEGINS
MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Added Enrollment of 600 Is Sought by the Organization.

"Flying Legion" and Much
Literature Are Means Employed.

Another Oakland Flying Legion is in the field. Just about the time the anti-annexation campaigners left for the Santa Clara valley this morning, hundreds of Y. M. C. A. canvassers, belonging to competing teams, started out to enroll more than 600 new members in the association.

Interest in tomorrow's election, outside of the annexation amendment issue, was almost forgotten by the workers on the first of the five days' campaign, which is meant to be a record breaker. Last year 600 new members were obtained in the annual campaign, but that will not satisfy the 1912 Flying Legion.

The crusade is to be aided by system as well as enthusiasm. Nine thousand letters and quantities of literature have been sent out to as many young men who, it is believed, should become members, and these "prospects" will be allotted to the various members of the six teams which will seek to win the silver cup to be awarded by Charles H. J. Truman.

COMPLETE CANVASS.
Offices, stores, business and industrial establishments will be visited by the canvassers during the campaign, wherever permission is granted. The workers have not so far been denied the privilege of seeing prospective members. Last year fifteen firms paid half of the membership fee to enable employees to join the association.

The first campaign report will be made tonight by the physical department team, headed by Captain Thomas J. Thompson. This department has threatened to make sure of the cup trophy early in the campaign as the result of a flying start.

A membership rally will take place tomorrow evening in the association headquarters at Twenty-first street and Telegraph avenue.

The team captains are: Business and professional men, W. M. Jenkins; education, Harvey L. Burchell; religious department, A. U. Brandt; dormitory department, E. D. Reed; social department, H. L. Kemp; physical department, Thomas J. Thompson.

SLEDGE HAMMER

Implement Accidentally Drop-

Workman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—H. Peterson of Niles, who is employed as a laborer in a precarious condition as the result of being accidentally struck on the head by a seven pound sledge hammer, Peterson, who is about 37 years of age, was engaged in the construction of a bridge at Niles. At the time of the accident he stood on the lower part of the bridge while one of his fellow workmen was engaged 20 feet overhead.

The latter was using a sledge hammer and suddenly slipped from his hands and fell. He noticed with horror that Peterson stood directly in the way of its falling. Peterson was struck on the head, and the blow was so severe that he was rendered unconscious. The blow fractured his skull and he was hurriedly removed to the infirmary.

RYAN'S TRIP TRACED BY COURT

Letters Produced In Effort to Prove Dynamiting Was Aim.

Epistle Written By John J. Mc-Namara Introduced as Testimony.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—Frank M. Ryan's trip about the country which the government charges were made partly in connection with explosions, while he was president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, were traced in letters produced at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial here today.

One letter written by John J. McNamara, the alleged dynamiter, to Ryan, referred to an advertisement offered for publication in the Iron Worker union magazine. This advertisement announced a reward for information about the finding of dynamite on a job in Cleveland, in February, 1908.

McNamara wrote to Ryan that "to refuse the advertisement would make it appear as if the union was trying to shield somebody."

Ryan, replying from Baltimore, advised McNamara to publish the offer of a reward. A contracting firm in Milwaukee had called a strike against it. Work of the firm in various cities later was blown up.

JAILED AS DRUNK;
DIES IN HIS CELL

Charles Wickham Victim of
Liver.

Charles Wickham, a frequent inmate of the city prison and a probationer, died in his cell early yesterday morning from chronic alcoholism and rupture of the liver. The man was found about 6 o'clock by Jailer Charles Jorgenson while making his rounds. The body was removed to the morgue, where an autopsy revealed the cause of death.

Wickham, who lives at 838 Fifty-seventh street, was arrested Saturday night for drunkenness. When arrested, he had his head bandaged, and told the police that he had been injured by having some money fall upon him while at work in San Francisco.

It was feared when he was found yesterday morning that death might have resulted from the injuries, and an investigation of his account of the manner in which he had been injured was started. The autopsy traced the death to other causes.

Wickham is survived by a widow. An inquest will be held.

By the failure of the brakes of an auto bus, twenty-one members of Battery B, First Brigade, U. S. C., were near death yesterday morning as they were being driven to the rifle range at Fort Seward.

The soldiers in the machine had not time to jump clear when it overturned, and they were thrown on to the roadway. Fortunately none of the men were seriously injured. Those in the automobile were Lieutenant Hogan, Sergeant Moore and Ensign Corporal Jimmie Glasgow.

As a result of the accident, the soldiers were being driven to the rifle range at Fort Seward.

FEDERAL COURT
REDUCED

The Supreme Tribunal Makes Drastic Changes In Legal Rules.

Fails to Render Decisions In Big United States'
Suits.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Revolutionary changes and procedure in equity cases in federal courts throughout the United States are effected in revised rules promulgated today by the Supreme Court of the United States. The object is to reduce the cost of litigation and to eliminate delay.

Among the new rules is one which would prohibit the issue of preliminary injunctions without notice to the opposite party and also restricting issues of temporary restraining orders.

The Supreme Court again adjourned without action on the case of the United States Trust, Union Pacific merger or State rail cases.

Justice White from the bench. For seven months the Chief Justice and Justices Lurton and Vandewater have been working on the equity rules, as a subcommittee of the court. The present rules came down from the courts of England, with only one or two revisions, since the beginning of the republic.

UNDER FIVE HEADS.
Chief Justice White, explaining the rules from the bench, grouped the reforms under four or five heads. One was in regard to the service of process by the Admiralty Courts in matters of equity. Another was described as being defined primarily to the removal of all unnecessary steps in modes of pleading, and to bring the practice quickly to the issue. Another was described as being a restriction in the modes of taking testimony, particularly in patent and copyright cases.

Another reform was said by the Chief Justice to be illustrated by the statement that the new rules, as a general thing, provide for trial by the court instead of a reference of the suit to a referee to take testimony and report back to the court. The Chief Justice said the new rules would make it possible for the Appeal Court not to reverse suits merely because of errors not prejudicial.

The new anti-injunction rule incorporates into practice several demands of labor leaders, which they sought to have recognized by the enactment of the so-called Clayton anti-injunction bill. The new rule follows in a general way the rules of the federal court in the Ninth Circuit, which comprises the Pacific Coast States.

THEFT OF $84,000
CHARGED TO AGENT

Wallace J. Poland Faces Trial for Alleged Embezzlement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Wallace J. Poland, Pacific Coast agent for the International Harvester Company, is charged with felony embezzlement on a warrant sworn out in San Francisco today.

He is now in the custody of detectives of the William J. Burns' agency, it is understood.

It is specifically understood that he misappropriated $1500 on October 2, but it is claimed that his total peculation will reach the enormous sum of $84,000. The complaint is the direct result of an investigation on this coast of Aubrey M. Ambrose, traveling auditor for the corporation. It is declared that Poland is interested in a theater at Modesto and a saloon here, and that the money was invested in those enterprises.

STOLE MILK; SENTENCED.
John Williams was sentenced to serve one year in the county prison today by Superior Judge Ellsworth for stealing condensed milk from a Southern Pacific boxcar at the foot of Broadway. His partner in the theft, Louis Anderson, received one year in San Quentin. The pair sold the milk in Chinatown and used the money to buy liquor.

LEAGUE TO FIGHT USE OF TOBACCO

Thousands of Pamphlets In-veighing Against the Weed Are Distributed.

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—The California Anti-Tobacco league, with headquarters in this city, has renewed its fight against the weed, distributing thousands of pamphlets yesterday in the local churches. The league proposes a strenuous campaign against the use of tobacco in public places. Statements from league officials and statistics are contained in the brochure distributed yesterday.

"We do not condemn the smoker," reads the official statement of the league. "Thousands of men in all walks of life are smokers. We exhort them and do what we can to encourage them to give up the habit. The objects of the league are mainly to educate the people in regard to the injury and loss which the tobacco habit brings upon them, to save the boys and young men of our land from the effects of the habit, to induce smokers to show due consideration for the rights of non-smokers at all times and in all places and to protect non-smokers from the offensive smoke of smokers."

The officers of the league are: President, Professor Frank Soule of the University of California; first vice-president, C. E. Hugh, professor of education in the University of California; second vice-president, L. E. Johnson, school principal; third vice-president, Mrs. Clara M. Partridge, school principal; fourth vice-president, Elmer E. Whitely, Miss Helen Morse, Mrs. A. T. Allen, Ida M. Blochman, Inez E. Brown, Edith C. Galbraith, Echo de Meneses and Gabriel V. Southard.

KILLS FAVORITE HORSE: TRIES TO END OWN LIFE

BIBBEE, Ark., Nov. 4.—His remarkable attachment for a horse, the one with whom he had a special relation, killed Glen Shipley, a young miner, who killed the horse and then attempted to commit suicide.

Early yesterday Shipley went to the stable where his horse was kept. He held the horse by the head and, at a point of a revolver, rode the animal into the hills at a point of five miles from town, gave the horse a last feed of oats and then sent a bullet through his head. Lying down beside the dead horse, Shipley sent a bullet through his body just below the heart. Shipley had used the horse for six years and recently he quarreled with the stableman because of his protests against the use of a chain collar. He had had previous quarrels because of his complaints that others who had rented the animal mistreated it, and frequently he rented the horse and cart to other drivers might not mistreat it.

The committee in charge includes Miss Alice Porterfield of the 1908 class, Miss Violet Ottomian of the 1909, Miss Margaret Ogden and Miss Margaret Hixar of the 1910, Miss Rose Gardner of the 1911 and Miss Reid Venable of 1912. COLONEL ISSUES LATE STATEMENT

Efforts of "Bosses" Made to Defeat Progressives, He Says.

OSYSTER BAY, Nov. 4.—In a statement issued today, Theodore Roosevelt charged Republican leaders with advising their followers to vote for Woodrow Wilson if they did not feel that they could support President Taft. The great concern of the "bosses," the colonial said, was to defeat the Progressive party.

"Several gentlemen have told me that certain of the lower houses who are Mr. Barnes' henchmen—Mr. Abe Gruber, for instance—have recently been publicly advising their hearers to vote the Democratic ticket if they did not feel like voting the Republican ticket," says the statement. "This is interesting as a fresh proof of how close and intimate the alliance is between the machines, if they can only beat the Progressives."

"Mr. Gruber's attitude merely illustrates what has been shown by the conduct of Messrs. Penrose, Barnes and Crane, and the other Republican bosses in New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, precisely as in Kansas, California and Oregon, that they have not the slightest expectation of winning this election and that their only purpose is directly or indirectly to aid the Democrats, in order that the Progressives may be beaten."

"The financiers and bosses of this type are really not patriots in their own souls," the Colonial continued. "The men mentioned are nominally Republican in their feelings, but they know they can always make terms with the corresponding bosses in the Democratic party."

"When the Abe Grubers, without regard to party, are both ready and eager to support either of the old parties in order to beat the Progressive movement, then it is surely time for honest and decent citizens without regard to their past political affiliations to support the Progressive party."

"This is in no ordinary sense of the word a patriotic movement. It is a movement for honesty and decency, for fair play in the world of industry no less than in the world of politics and we have the right to appeal to all good citizens to support it."

HOME NOT MAGNET FOR THIS WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Because his wife insisted on going out with other men, leaving their two children alone while he himself was at work, Otto M. Neuner, an engineer, filed suit for divorce against Mercie A. Neuner, which was granted by Superior Judge Cabaniss today. The couple lived during most of their married life in Pico Robles, where Neuner worked at night. He says that after their first disagreement and separation he took his wife back again, and her recapture continued until finally she left him. He was given the custody of the children, aged 5 and 6 years.

ALAMEDA STRONG AGAINST MEASURE

Big Anti-Consolidation Rally Will Be Held Tonight In City Hall.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—By far the largest anti-consolidation meeting of the campaign in Alameda will be held tonight in the city hall. Among the speakers will be former Mayor E. K. Taylor and Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes. Both Taylor and Hynes have made several addresses of well-aimed wit. The speaker denounced patent medicines and nostrums, and praised the work of Dr. Harvey Wiley.

The new library is a fireproof steel and concrete building of five stories and basement. It has a capacity of 120,000 volumes and at present contains 40,000. The largest medical library west of the San Francisco bay is the library of Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, who died in 1902, was set aside for the erection of the building. The cost of the building was $125,000.

DENMARK MAKES BID FOR PACIFIC'S TRADE

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 4.—Eighty-two days from Copenhagen, the Danish steamer Arabian entered port yesterday. The vessel is the first arrival of the fleet with which the East Asiatic Steamship company of Copenhagen has made a contract in Pacific coast, South American and European trade.

The Arabian, of 4600 tons, left Copenhagen August 12. On the voyage she has made several stops in London, Coronal and Callita, Chile. Captain Corten states that the East Asiatic company sent the Arabian to the Pacific coast for the purpose of working up trade in advance of the opening of the Panama canal. Four twin-screw steamers of 9000 tons each are now building and will be added to the company's fleet, which at present numbers eight vessels.

A short time ago, the new steamer will succeed the old ones in the Pacific trade. In the meantime, the company will maintain a fifty-day service between Copenhagen, Antwerp, London and the Pacific coast. The Arabian will proceed to Puget Sound, stopping at San Pedro, San Francisco and Portland on the way. This will be the itinerary for the remainder of the fleet after leaving San Diego.

STANDARD ACCEPTS MEDICAL LIBRARY

Famous Lane Collection Dedicated at Brilliant Ceremony.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The formal opening and dedication of the Lane Medical Library took place in the new building at Sacramento and Webster streets yesterday afternoon. The occasion marked the first acceptance by Stanford University of the Cooper Medical College and Lane Hospital as an integral part of the university.

A large number of the alumni of Cooper and Stanford and men prominent in the medical profession in this city were on hand to witness the ceremonies. The large assembly-room on the fourth floor of the building, as yet unfinished, was tastefully decorated with flags and flowers, the cardinal of Stanford predominating in the color scheme.

The opening prayer was offered by the Rev. Bradford Leavitt, Timothy J. Hopkins, president of the trustees of the university, acted as chairman of the afternoon and introduced the speakers. Hopkins also made an address accepting the new acquisition on behalf of his fellow-trustees.

"The university has no false pride," said Hopkins, "in the possession of the largest medical library of any college in the Americas, but is proud in having it made instantly useful in making the dream of years a reality."

"Stanford University has accepted the Lane Library with a full appreciation of its significance both to medical education and to the profession," said Rixford, professor of surgery at Cooper, "furnished many interesting facts concerning the origin of Cooper and the history of the library."

Following Dr. Rixford's address, Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, was introduced by Hopkins. "The Relation of the University to Medicine," was the title of Jordan's address. It was a most characteristic shaft of well-aimed wit. The speaker denounced patent medicines and nostrums, and praised the work of Dr. Harvey Wiley.

The new library is a fireproof steel and concrete building of five stories and basement. It has a capacity of 120,000 volumes and at present contains 40,000. The largest medical library west of the San Francisco bay is the library of Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, who died in 1902, was set aside for the erection of the building. The cost of the building was $125,000.

RENO TEAM RETURNS TO SAGE BRUSH STATE

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—The Reno High School rugby team is again back in Nevada after a two days' visit in Alameda as the guests of the Alameda high school. The visitors left for home yesterday afternoon and undisturbed they stepped in their seats a good portion of the way home for they had slight chance for more than "cap" caps during the whirlwind visit in the Island City. Arriving Friday, the boys were whisked about the city, banquets were given for them and shown other attentions which threatened to develop into an all-night continuous show. Despite the long trip from the sagebrush state and the added cost of the round of the Reno team, the boys were up bright and early Saturday morning, ready for another hard day.

MONTGOMERY REPLIES TO POLICE CHIEF PETERSON

EDITOR TRIBUNE: In the issue of THE TRIBUNE of October 31 is an article under the caption "Ready to Fight" which contains a statement by Mr. J. J. Peterson, chief of police, to the effect that "Both James P. Montgomery and the people behind him are acting from malicious motives."

If Mr. Peterson is so quoted, my reply is that he has stated an absolute and unqualified falsehood. The motives behind the charter for the city of Alameda are not malicious. The motives are the motives of the city of Alameda, and the motives of the city of Alameda are the motives of the city of Alameda.

The question naturally arises that if the position of captain of inspectors could be filled for this year and the following year, why it was necessary in the past to fill the position of captain of inspectors for a greater year.

In order to more clearly understand the gravity of the wrong committed by the city of Alameda, it is necessary to state that the city of Alameda is a city of Alameda, and the city of Alameda is a city of Alameda.

From this section it is apparent that it is obligatory upon the city government to have the chief of police appointed, as well as the captain of inspectors, for a greater year.

It is also apparent that it is obligatory upon the city government to have the chief of police appointed, as well as the captain of inspectors, for a greater year.

ALAMEDA GIRL TO WED NEVADA MINING MAN

Will Fight San Francisco's Greed at Polls Tomorrow.

MISS ELSA MAY VECTORS.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—The betrothal of Miss Elsa May Vectors and Roger P. Kentner was announced Sunday at a family dinner given at the Vectors home, 1018 Park street. No definite wedding day has yet been set, but the wedding will probably take place in the near future.

Miss Vectors is one of the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Vectors. The family is prominent in this city, where the Vectors home has been for many years. Mrs. Vectors is a popular member of established social circles in Alameda and the other bay cities. Miss Vectors has traveled extensively for several years, having returned two weeks ago from a five months' stay in Europe.

Mr. Kentner is a Nevada mining engineer, with headquarters in Reno. He was a member of the engagement dinner party at the Vectors home yesterday, returning to Reno. It is whispered that the romance developed after the young woman's return from abroad, and it is also whispered that the California girl was betrothed to a Nevada mining man, who is a member of the Nevada Mining Engineers' Association.

HOUSE DEADLOCK BROKEN BY DEATH

Passing of Representative Uter Changes Situation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The death of Representative George H. Uter of Rhode Island, apparently breaks the deadlock in which the House of Representatives would not elect a President. It is also believed that the California girl was betrothed to a Nevada mining man, who is a member of the Nevada Mining Engineers' Association.

Up to the time of Uter's death, the House was equally divided. Representation of 22 States was Democratic, 22 was Republican, and the balance of four remaining States were evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats.

Rhode Island was one of the States in which the delegation was equally divided, and Uter's death, should his place be not filled by a Republican to finish the remainder of his term, would throw Rhode Island to the Democratic column.

This would not permit an election by the House, because the constitution requires a majority of the States, which would be 25. Uter's death, however, does not break the equal division between Republicans and Democrats.

FRIENDS MOURN FOR MRS. E. V. ANDERSON

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—The funeral of Mrs. Emma V. Anderson, wife of Emil Anderson, proprietor of the Western Dairy company, was held from the family residence, 425 E. 12th street, yesterday afternoon. A profusion of flowers, the gift of sorrowing friends, bore silent testimony to the esteem in which the deceased was held. These offerings blanketed the parlors and around the casket.

The funeral services were read by Rev. P. S. Bruen of the First Presbyterian church of this city, of which Mrs. Anderson was an honored and active member.

The remains, following the ceremony, were taken to the cemetery and interred in the family vault. Mrs. Anderson was a native of Sweden and had been a resident of Alameda for many years. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church and was a very active worker in the church and in the community.

RICHMOND'S VOTE IS AGAINST "GRAB"

Will Fight San Francisco's Greed at Polls Tomorrow.

RICHMOND, Nov. 4.—All is over now except to cast the votes tomorrow, and the betting is all one way in Richmond—that this city and county will give Wilson a majority, poll up the biggest majority for Mayor James C. Owens for the state senate that was ever polled here and register such a protest against the San Francisco "grab" act as will leave no doubt in the minds of the people of the big city across the bay as to what Richmond thinks about being swallowed by soul and bootstraps.

Major Dan McLaughlin has just returned from a flying tour of Marin and Sonoma counties with the Oakland campaigners against the "grabbing act," and says the sentiment in those two counties is the same as it is in Richmond, with exception, possibly, of San Rafael, where it is divided.

The big campaign rallies held here Saturday night demonstrated the public feeling, for while the Roosevelt meeting was fairly well attended, there was no room in the building to accommodate the immense outpouring to the Wilson and Owens meeting.

It is the consensus of opinion here that Charles F. Chandler will give an immense majority in Richmond tomorrow. Candidate Ross, his opponent in the congressional race, is here today. No one seems to be able to make a forecast at all on the assembly matter. Both D. Johnson, a progressive nominee, and Edward Hasey, Democratic nominee, claim that victory is in sight. It will probably be close.

CLERGYMAN PAYS TRIBUTE TO MARX

Rev. H. A. Jump Delivers Sermon on "Modern Socialism."

In one of a series of Sunday evening sermons on society and social problems, Rev. H. A. Jump, pastor of the First Congregational church, took for his topic last night "Modern Socialism." He paid a tribute to Karl Marx, "the father of modern socialism," declaring him to be a philosopher who studied brains and a philosopher who had offered to the world an interpretation of the economic order "quite as comprehensive as Darwin ever offered for the biologic order."

"Most philosophers dealt with the omnipotent God and how He imparts His being to the world," said Rev. Jump. "Marx dealt with the common man and how he gets his living seven days in the week."

"Clean and sweet in his private life, honest and generous in all his business dealings, broadly human in his relations to the world, Karl Marx was not only an intellectual pioneer, but he was a shining example of what a simple human soul ought to be."

"Marx asserted that a new form of social order was necessary in order to secure the age of social justice. He believed that this could be achieved only by rebuilding society from the bottom up, and that we should build the co-operative commonwealth we shall secure the high ends for which we are laboring."

HARPSICORD PLAYER GIVES TWO RECITALS

ALAMEDA RETURNS FROM TRIP ABROAD

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clark have returned from three months of travel. Mr. Clark spent the fall in the Atlantic states, while Mrs. Clark went to Europe for a tour through England, Belgium, Germany and France. On the return trip Clark visited New York, Boston, Washington, and other cities, in company with Mrs. Clark, and also made a trip into Maine, where Mrs. Clark spent a major portion of her time with her father.

Clark is past president of the United Club, and will probably be called upon to tell of his travel experiences at a club meeting in the near future. One of the chief things which struck the Alamedan while abroad was the moderate tax charges. In London the minty and 17 cents, in Germany 16 cents and in Paris 15 cents. A real joy ride can be had for a dollar.

COUNCIL MEETING POSTPONED

Several positions in the backfield are still in question. The position of the center of the backs is practically fixed, but the arrangement of the men has not yet been decided. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 4. — Promoters of tonight's ten-round battle between J. Wolgast and Joe Mandot said today that the box office receipts probably would reach $30,000. Wolgast was guaranteed $10,000 and Mandot $5,000. The promoters instead of 50 per cent of the receipts, Mandot will receive 25 per cent of the receipts and Wolgast 25 per cent.

"If Mandot will not run away constitutionally," said Wolgast this morning, "I will be knocked out in four or five rounds and will be able to get up and fight for appendicitis I am in perfect condition and that means a whipping for Mandot."

STORK INVOLVED IN ESTATE WAR

False Birth Entry Discovered and Heir Is Cut Off From Fortune.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—Substitution of one child for another in a San Francisco hospital immediately after both had been born, is made the basis of a controversy, with many dramatic phrases, over a large fortune in the East.

At a meeting of the State Board of Health Saturday a resolution was passed declaring that a certain birth certificate filed with the board two years ago was not correct and wiping the certificate from the record.

The resolution was passed upon recommendation of Dr. William F. Snow, secretary of the board, who, with Senator L. H. Roseberry of Santa Barbara, has investigated during the past two years the case and has come to the conclusion that a false record was made.

The story concerns a well-to-do California family, whose names Dr. Snow refuses to give out, declaring that it is not a matter in which the public is concerned. It is evident that the matter will eventually find its way into court.

Two years ago a well-to-do woman living in the East, in Santa Barbara, went to a San Francisco hospital, expecting the birth of a child. Her husband did not accompany her, and beyond her physician and nurse there were no witnesses to the birth of the child. In course of time the woman returned to her husband with a lively young baby boy, which she presented to him as his own. About a year after the birth of the child it felt her to a large estate left by a wealthy relative in the East.

HEIRS SUSPICIOUS.

Heirs in the East who proceeded with great care because the child, although a baby not more than a year old, did not show any of the family characteristics of either the father or the mother, began to suspect that it was not a legal heir. They took the precaution to have the birth certificate examined. The certificate was regularly made out, but it had an error upon it, and this further increased the doubts of the Eastern heirs.

Then they looked up the witnesses to the birth. This was an exceedingly difficult task. For many months no trace of the witnesses could be found. Finally, one of the witnesses was located in Australia and the other in St. Louis. When the witnesses were found the truth concerning the child was revealed.

It was ascertained that the woman gave birth to a stillborn child, and while at the hospital, declaring that her husband would be frantic when he learned that the child had not lived, she adopted a healthy baby about the same time. The false record was made out and filed and the woman returned to her home with her adopted son, which she presented to her husband as her own.

Arizona Voters to Oppose Suffrage

PHOENIX, Nov. 4.—Eleventh hour opposition to women's suffrage has developed in Arizona, according to well-informed political leaders, who predict the defeat of the constitutional amendment in the ballot tomorrow.

It is said that a movement against the amendment has been conducted secretly in the thickly populated parts of the state and although there has been no open opposition to the measure, its defeat is practically assured.

PREDICTS WOMEN OF WORLD WILL VOTE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Votes for women, the world over, and that soon, is the prediction made by Miss Marie Chapman Catt, president of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance, who arrived here today by the liner Chiyo Maru after campaigning and investigating conditions among women in Europe, Africa, Asia and Polynesia.

"I was surprised," said Miss Catt, "to find how strong is the wave of interest and resolution bearing votes to women the world around, and how rapidly it is sweeping on."

"In Persia the movement toward equal suffrage is strong, and at the next international congress of the alliance it is probable there will be a Persian delegate."

"Even in Africa, Java, Sumatra and the Philippines the tendency of the times can be felt, even if it is not an unrelenting river, as it is elsewhere."

On national politics, Miss Catt's only comment was that she was glad to have Colonel Roosevelt's support, even if he were a late convert.

CHARGES OF FELONY DISMISSED BY COURT

Charges against Edward Morrison, a young man accused of a felony, were dismissed this morning by Superior Judge Ellsworth upon motion of attorneys for defendant. At his first trial the jury disagreed and it was considered that the evidence in the case was insufficient for a second trial. The alleged crime was committed while Morrison was in parole for failure to provide for his family. The matter of his breaking parole will be considered by the court at a later date.

H. Jochin Discovers Supposed
Joke Has Realism as Feature.

Two men held up and robbed H. Jochin, a salesman for the Van Emmon elevator company, last night at Twenty-second and Webster streets, taking $17.50. A valuable gold watch worn by Jochin was overlooked by the highwayman.

Jochin was on his way home about 8:30 o'clock last night when he was accosted by two strangers. They ordered him to hold up his hands, and Jochin, thinking the demand was some form of practical joke, refused to comply until a revolver was thrust into his face.

Captain J. F. Lynch hastened to the scene with a posse of police, but failed to find the bandits.

Pickpockets stole a buckskin bag containing $180 from the A. L. Moore, a teamster employed at Mills college, yesterday. Moore was leaving a Ninth street theater when he was jostled by two strangers. He was told to give a messenger description of the men to the police.

SAYS SHE DID NOT PUT ICE DOWN KING'S BACK

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—It was not Lily Langtry who dropped a piece of ice down the back of the late King Edward when he was the Prince of Wales. Miss Langtry says it was Lady Cornwallis West who gave the prince a chill by dropping the ice down his back. It occurred at a reception at which Miss Langtry was present.

It was in discussing her memoirs which she is writing that the noted actress touched on the subject of the prince, the ice and the royal reception.

"That fable follows me everywhere," she said. "One of the reporters who met me at quarantine asked me if I still patronized the same ice man. Fancy the impudence."

TRICKY PRISONER GETS FREEDOM ON FLUKE

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 4.—When the Kern county jailer took toll of his charges today he learned that Charles Stedman, confidence man bilked him out of a gold watch and $125 Saturday and escaped. He was holding Ed. Moore in Stedman's place.

The jailer called Moore "to go" Saturday. Moore did not hear him. Stedman stepped up, saying, "Well, I am ready."

"Where's your mustache?" asked the jailer.

"I shaved it off."

"The jailer turned over Moore's watch and money and Stedman left. He had 176 days to serve."

MAKES LAST PLEA FOR PROGRESSIVES

Roosevelt Calls on California to Support Private Party.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—To his supporters and lieutenants here, Colonel Roosevelt sent today a final appeal addressed to the voters of California. The Colonel telegraphed it from Oyster Bay, saying in part:

"California has taken the lead in the Progressive movement during the last two years, and I now hope and expect that it will take the lead in bringing the movement to triumph in the nation as a whole."

"I appeal to the men and women of California without regard to their past political affiliations to stand with the Progressive party in this fight, because it is a fight for the fundamentals of decency and honesty, and we should be supported by every clear-sighted, clean-living and upright citizen in the land."

"With Governor Johnson as Vice-President, presiding over the United States Senate, the people of this country would at least be certain that the Senate would not act adversely to their interests without being called to sharp account."

SENT TO STORE; STAYED 5 DAYS

Hubby Failed to Bring Back Medicine, but Brought
"Package."

Della Roberts sent her husband to the drug store one morning while they lived in Turlock, a distance of five blocks, to get her a package of medicine. He came home five days later, but the package he is alleged to have carried was not the kind she ordered, according to her complaint for divorce from Frank Roberts, filed today.

After the couple moved to Oakland, Mrs. Roberts said that her husband, who is a bookkeeper, was accustomed to going to the baseball games on Sunday mornings and later going to San Francisco. On these occasions she avers that he showed up at home on the following Monday morning much the worse for liquor.

When asked as to where he had been, she says, he told her it was none of her business.

Alice Woodbury was granted a final decree from Lowell A. Woodbury on the grounds of willful desertion.

Laundry-Worker Falls Heir to $110,000

OCEANSIDE, Nov. 4.—Pierre Clavier, employed in a laundry in this city, started for France a week ago to visit his aged mother, it was stated, and today his friends learned that he has gone to claim an estate consisting of $110,000 in cash. Besides this he is named trustee for a cousin who is named consisting of $100,000 of an estate and property worth $60,000.

Mrs. Clavier confirmed the reports this morning and continued with her ironing, declaring it was too early yet to give up working and seemed unwilling to accept congratulations. It is stated the fortune was left by a rich uncle of the Claviers, who died recently.

The Apollo Player Piano Is the Only Player Touching Down On the Keys

¶ The APOLLO PLAYER PIANO touches down on the keys—the way a human being plays the piano.

¶ Did you ever see a pianist play the piano by any other method than touching down on the keys? Did you ever see a pianist play up on the keys? No—therefore if the pianists are right, then the APOLLO is right, and down on the keys is the only correct way.

¶ The APOLLO is the only Player Piano built on the principle of the down touch—the only Player Piano which has the METRONOME MOTOR and which has the correct SOLO DEVICE.

¶ Do not these things make the APOLLO worth investigating?

UNITED STATES IS SAFE, AVERS CARDINAL GIBBONS

Dire Predictions of Calamity Have No Basis, Declares Churchman

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.—A message of assurance was given to the Catholics of the United States yesterday by Cardinal Gibbons. The cardinal, speaking from the Baltimore Cathedral, assured the members of his nation-wide pastorate that through dire predictions as to the political and civil future of the United States had gained credence through the present campaign no material calamity could in reality come to this country through political jockeying.

The cardinal classed his semi-political discourse as a "message of comfort" to the three Presidential candidates. He said: "There are three conspicuous citizens who are now candidates for the Presidency. Whatever may be my private and personal preference and prediction, it is not for me in this sacred pulpit, or anywhere else, publicly to dictate or even suggest to you the candidate of my choice."

"May God so enlighten the mind and quicken the conscience of the American people to a sense of their civic duties as to arouse in them an earnest and practical interest in the coming election, and may he so guide their hearts that they will select a chief magistrate who will redound to the material prosperity and moral welfare of our beloved republic."

CRISIS AT HAND.

In regard to the crisis said to be facing the voters of the United States, the cardinal said in part:

"By the wise provisions of the constitution of the United States, political authority is not concentrated in one individual, or in one department of the administration, but is judiciously distributed so that the balance of power may be preserved. Our general government consists of the executive, the legislative and the judicial branches. If anything goes wrong with any one of these departments, the evil is checked by the other two, and usurpation of power is prevented. There is habitual jealousy among these branches. They are on the alert, jealously watching one another so that no one branch may exceed its legitimate bounds. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

"Then, again, besides the federal administration, we have State governments and county rulers. We have city and town and village municipalities. If all of these minor corporations were absorbed by the general government if our governors and State legislators, and sheriffs, and mayors, and councilmen were all under the control of the president, if he could at all times exercise an obnoxious subordinate rule, with one blow, all our political liberties would be at an end. But happily all these lesser officials enjoy full autonomy in their spheres and are independent of the chief magistrate."

SYSTEM COMPLEX.

"Our system of government is very complex. It may be compared to a colossal engine, containing innumerable wheels within wheels. Each wheel works in its own orbit, like the planetary system. If the great federal wheel gets out of order, the smaller wheels are not much disturbed, but keep on moving until the big machine is repaired.

"We are all familiar with the memorable Titanic disaster, which resulted in the loss of so many precious lives, as well as the peerless vessel itself. Had all the compartments of that steamship been watertight, the loss of life would have been avoided."

"Now our government is often called a 'Ship of State.' This great 'Ship of State' is divided into 48 minor States. Each of these States may be said to be a compartment, in the sense that the engulfing of one would not involve the sinking of the others. For example, if a political revolution without disturbing the neighboring States of Washington, Nevada or Arizona."

"Our States were mere provinces or territories without autonomy and sovereignty, like other republics less favored than ours we would enjoy less stability and less hope of enduring freedom than we now possess."

DEPENDS ON AUTONOMY.

"The safety and permanence, therefore, of our republic largely depends on the autonomy of the several States, without the danger of absorption by the general government. Should our governors and legislators ever become the subservient creatures of the federal government they would be mere puppets, subject to the will of the chief executive. They would cease to be watertight and would share the fate of the Titanic."

"Two momentous crises occurred in my own day which were well calculated to test the vitality and strength of the republic. The first was the war between the States, when the nation was cut in twain, when fratricidal blood was shed over the land and a tremendous conflict was carried on for four years. This calamity has happily ended, and dismembered States are now more firmly united than ever before, because slavery, which was the bone of contention, has been removed once and forever."

"The second crisis occurred in the presidential contest in 1876 between Tilden and Hayes. Mr. Tilden was robbed of the fruit of the victory which, I believe, he honestly won, and by questionable devices Mr. Hayes was declared the successful candidate."

"A nation that could survive these terrible strains must be possessed of extraordinary vitality and resources, and leads us to hope that in any future emergency the leaders and statesmen of the republic will rise to the occasion and bring order out of chaos."

"It is my profound conviction that if ever the republic is doomed to decay, if the future historians shall record the decline and fall of the American Republic, its downfall will be due, not to a hostile invasion, but to the indifference, lethargy and political apostasy of her own sons."

TAFT LISTENS TO MOOSE SERMON AVIATORS TO SEE EFFECT OF FIRING

The President Attends Church, Only to Hear of "New Politics."

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—President Taft sat in the Church of the Messiah yesterday and listened to a sermon delivered by Rev. John Holmes, pastor of the church, in which Holmes, while not mentioning any public men or any political party, talked about new politics as distinguished from the old, and in general terms talked about what might be called progressivism. Members of the Progressive party in the congregation thought that the sermon had specific reference to Colonel Roosevelt and his doctrines.

The President himself made no comment on the sermon, but members of the party which accompanied him considered it rather a joke that he had chanced upon what struck them as almost a Bull Moose sermon on the Sunday before election.

The visit of the President to the church was unheralded, except for telephone word which reached the church half an hour before the time for service.

In concluding his sermon the minister said: "The sublime faith in the destiny of America is shaken. This loss of faith does not mean that the American people are lying down, giving up in disappointment but that they are making up their minds to make America what it ought to be. They are bringing about the rebirth of political life. The American people realize that they must work out their own political salvation. God and fate are not going to do everything for us, and blind faith in destiny is being superseded by serious purpose. We must help ourselves."

USES OIL IN STOVE: WOMAN BADLY BURNED

PETALUMA, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Alexander Pizzelli, a member of a prominent family of this city, whose husband conducts a large ranch at Bloomfield, was probably fatally burned this morning. Mrs. Pizzelli could not start the breakfast fire by means of paper, so oil was used. There were coals in the stove and in an instant she was a mass of flames. She ran screaming from the kitchen into the bedroom and grasping a heavy blanket, wrapped it about her body. Her husband and the ranch hands responded to her calls but the woman was rightfully burned before the flames were extinguished.

Dr. Cockrell of Bloomfield administered treatment for the burns and then Dr. J. T. O'Brien of this city was also called. The physician pronounced the burns as very serious. The upper part of Mrs. Pizzelli's body was severely burned. Mrs. Pizzelli married her husband in Italy about a year ago, and since they have resided on a large ranch near Bloomfield.

With only six days remaining in which to reap a harvest of dimes, nickels and quarters, to bring the St. Vincent Orphan Asylum fund well to the five-hundred mark, the women and women of East Oakland in charge of St. Anthony's church fair with the opening of the bazaar this evening and every night until the final closing on Saturday, November 9, will inaugurate a whirlwind campaign in an effort to secure the amount.

An attractive display of articles of all kinds, and all of them made by the women of the parish are attracting attention and include everything from dolls to the most expensive hand-painted china.

Leaders in Montana CERTAIN OF VICTORY

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 4.—While no political work of any consequence has been done by either party today, the leaders of each were in consultation with the representatives throughout the state with a view to having party lines drawn together.

The Democratic chairman today declared that Montana would be for Wilson by a plurality of more than 15,000 votes, and the Progressive chairman declared that the Progressive party would win with a plurality of at least 10,000. The Republicans are claiming the state by a close margin.

ORPHEUM WONDER BILL IS OFFERED

Splendid Numbers on New Schedule at Twelfth-Street
Vaudeville House.

Another wonder bill packed them in at the Oakland Orpheum, yesterday. It sorely tried tempers, fighting the way through the crowd that sardined the lobby and stormed the box office. You can't blame the crowd. Orpheum vaudeville is getting so good that some one will have to boost the limit higher than the new city hall.

In 1908 it was responsible for some of the praise Joseph Jefferson, Felice Morris and Blanche Bender play it and never was sketch better taken care of. "In 1908" is a satire on the part in character way. Felice Morris as the 1898 brute adds to her already large collection of well-acted bits. Blanche Bender is the friend and helps the action along in a skilful way.

Hence we have husband as a neglected housewife, his fair spouse as the cruel clubman and another beauty as the false friend who makes love to the ill-treated better half. That's the situation. The action is merely a recital of the same old story. It is a commentary on the trend of events, as the cartoonist sees them. As a satire it is cleverly done, its burlesque tendency and so well taken care of that it becomes a bit of high art.

Joseph Jefferson is the husband. He gets a deal out of the part in character way. Felice Morris as the 1898 brute adds to her already large collection of well-acted bits. Blanche Bender is the friend and helps the action along in a skilful way.

APPLAUSE THEIRS, TOO.
To Miss Dolores Martin, Marcel Bronski and a ballet of eight or 10 dancers were accorded yesterday. The act is a graceful and attractive. The following program is given:

Acting manager by Miss Martin and Bronski and corps de ballet, prelude, corps de ballet, waltz, a grand pas, polka, Miss Zarina and Murray dance classique, Martin and Bronski and corps de ballet; Marchandine, Miss Zarina and Murray dance, a grand pas, polka, Murray and corps de ballet.

"Silvers" plays a ball game, all by himself. That's a job that has been attempted by certain big league stars, but it is his own way and gets away from it and a large chunk of appreciation.

Beatriz Michelena, in a barbaric costume that is a poor setting for her physical beauty, spread a diver's net over the house in three or four well-chosen songs.

And a medley of favorites, good vaudeville and all that sort of thing, here are Melville and Higgins. She's all the time "kicking on him," as they say. Let it be much that is new introduced by the clever couple, but the best of the old stuff is still in vogue.

The Great Asahi quartette of wonder-workers and acrobats return and are welcomed by Frank Morrell adds a joy to the bill, the two Alfreds attend to the athletic end of the program and motion pictures of the Red Sox-Giants are featured.

NAVY OFFICERS' WIVES PLAN ORGANIZATION

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 4.—An effort is to be made here to form an organization of wives of naval officers that will be of benefit to them during the absence of their husbands at sea or while they are away on other missions. There is to be a meeting late today of women, mostly wives of active or retired naval officers and the first formal steps toward forming the new organization will be taken.

It is the hope of the projectors that the movement will spread to other places where there is a naval station and in time the organization will be a similar organization in England.

RETURN IN CHURCH

ORANGE, N. J., Nov. 4.—The saying of souls in the old First Presbyterian Church of Orange will be suspended Tuesday night while members of the congregation wait the saying of the country. Instead of holding the regular prayer meeting they will gather in the lecture room and listen to the reaching of election returns by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Charles Townsend.

Many bodies being interested in the election returns, Dr. Townsend announced he had arranged to receive returns, but from the wire and instead of reading from the Scriptures Tuesday night he will read from the photograph album.

PAY TRIBUTE TO TITANIC BANDSMEN

Bronze Tablet Erected By Members of Musician's
Union.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The heroic musicians who played "Nearer, My God, to Thee," as the Titanic sank last spring were honored yesterday by musicians here. A bronze tablet to the seven bandsmen prepared by members of the Musical Protective Union was unveiled at the clubhouse of the organization.

The tablet, 30x24 inches, bears a feminine figure symbolic of music, placing a wreath of oak leaves on an expiring of placid water, broken by an iceberg. Beneath is the inscription: "A tribute to the bandsmen of the Titanic. When the order was 'Each man for himself' these bandsmen remained on board and played until the last."
